Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Fifth Amendment of the Bill of Rights assures us that no person shall be deprived of property without due process of the law; and,

WHEREAS, This amendment provides that no private property be taken for public use without just compensation; and,

WHEREAS, With these rights often comes the desire to improve property and, by so doing, enhance its value and the enjoyment derived therefrom; and,

WHEREAS, Each year, Realtors--members of the local board, State Association and National Association of Realtors--call attention to the importance of private property rights by celebrating American Home Week:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 24 through 30, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I remind all our citizens of their freedom to own private property, the importance to protect the rights that accompany this ownership, and their awareness of the value of improving such property.

AMERICAN HOME WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
